WINTER CAMP

Enriching Learning Experiences beyond the Classroom

We are thrilled to unveil the comprehensive details of our highly anticipated 2025 AISL Outdoor Year Round Programme, a dynamic initiative where adventure and education intertwine to create truly unforgettable experiences for young minds. As the strategic partner and service provider for the esteemed Asia International School Limited (AISL), AISL Outdoor is passionately dedicated to fostering holistic growth and learning beyond the traditional classroom setting.

This year, we are excited to offer an expansive portfolio of over 100 programmes, meticulously tailored to cater to diverse interests and age groups. Our carefully curated camp experiences are organised into ten distinct themes, each designed to challenge, inspire, and nurture the innate curiosity of our participants. Whether honing artistic talents, developing survival skills, or exploring scientific wonders, our camps provide an enriching platform for exploration, discovery, and deep learning that transcends conventional education.

We are particularly excited to announce that the 2025 AISL Outdoor Year Round Programme will be hosted across multiple picturesque locations in AISL Harrow Schools, each chosen for its unique natural landscape and excellent facilities. This ensures a safe, engaging, and holistic outdoor learning environment, allowing participants to connect with nature while enhancing their educational journey.

In this brochure, you will discover a wealth of offerings, from adrenaline-fuelled adventures to serene environmental explorations. Each experience is thoughtfully designed to promote learning beyond the classroom, where practical skills meet real-world applications in the most enriching ways. Our programmes encourage teamwork, resilience, and creativity, allowing participants to grow not just academically but personally as well.

We look forward to welcoming young adventurers to a year filled with growth, discovery, and excitement. Join us on this transformative journey that promises to inspire and enrich the educational experience!

Role in Real Businesses

Access Capital

Businesses raise funds through public offerings or debt issuance. This provides alternatives to traditional bank loans.

Fund Growth

Capital enables expansion into new markets. Companies can build facilities, develop products, and acquire competitors.

Create Jobs

Access to funding drives things. New positions support business growth and boost economic activity.

When companies access capital markets, they unlock potential. Innovation flourishes when properly funded.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

The following are the general policies and terms and conditions which apply to all our programmes, unless otherwise specified, to ensure the quality of our programmes, their administration and the safety of the participants and staff who take part in them. Please take a moment to review our policies and terms and conditions below.

1. CAMPS ADMINISTRATION

Applications and payment

- Places are allocated on a first-come-first-served basis.
- Camp fees need to be fully paid upon enrolment. We have the right to exclude participants from camps for the non-payment of fees.
- You are asked to inform the office in writing should you wish to make any changes after the application is submitted. Please see below for our policies on withdrawals and change of booking.
- Please check the time, date, venue and the prerequisites carefully as outlined on the schedule.
- The booking is non-transferable.

Policy on Withdrawal, Absence, Cancellations

- Booking confirmation will be sent to you by email. Camp reminders will be sent to you 2 weeks before the first day of camp. Please regularly check your email, including your spam folder, to ensure you receive our messages. If you're not receiving our emails, check your junk mail and confirm that we have updated your contact details. We cannot be held responsible for missed camps due to unread emails or messages landing in your spam folder.
- To ensure swift communication during emergencies, participants must provide at least one emergency contact with a local phone number. In the event of an accident, we will immediately call this number. If we cannot reach you, we will send an email to notify you of the incident.
- If you're unsure about the contact details you provided, please email us at info@aisloutdoor.com to update your information. Having accurate contact details is crucial for our Child Protection Policy. Remember, opting out of email communication may result in missing essential information about your child's programs.

2. POLICY ON WITHDRAWAL, ABSENCE, CANCELLATIONS

Applications and payment

- Participants who successfully enrol in a camp are entitled to a cooling-off period of 7 days from the date of purchase. For example, if a purchase is made on 1 July at 4 PM, the cooling-off period will conclude on 8 July at 4 PM. This period allows participants the opportunity to reconsider their enrolment and request a refund if necessary.
- Please note that the cooling-off period applies only to purchases made up to 60 days prior to the start date of the registered camp. All requests for withdrawal or changes to bookings must be submitted in writing to info@aisloutdoor.com.

- Refunds requested by participants for personal reasons, particularly those involving remittances to overseas accounts, may have any associated bank charges deducted from the refund amount.
- All refund requests are subject to the sole decision of AISL OUTDOOR.

3. PARENT AND GUARDIAN RESPONSIBILITIES

- Parents and/or guardians are responsible for the transportation, pickup and drop-off arrangement of the participants to and from the programme venue and the travelling arrangements including visa applications (if applicable) of the participants.
- Camps will finish on time. Please ensure you pick up your child promptly at the end of the camp. If your child is self-dismissed, you are required to submit the self-dismissal authorization form to us before the first day of camp. Without receiving the form, we couldn't allow your child to leave due to our safeguarding policy, and costs incurred due to such an arrangement will be charged. AISL OUTDOOR reserves the right to determine whether a child may self-dismiss, regardless of the receipt of an authorization form, to ensure the child's safety.

- You are also required to provide the contact details of the person who is picking up your child to us.

4. SAFETY

- Participants are expected to abide by the regulations of the facility. This will be strictly enforced, and we reserve the right to ask anyone who does not abide by the rules or behaves unreasonably to leave immediately. No refund or credit will be available under such circumstances.
- AISL OUTDOOR, our coaches and our teachers are not responsible for any injury to participants, or damage or loss of property because of participation in our camps.
- In case of a medical emergency, your child will be transferred to the nearest hospital using the local Government Emergency Medical Unit.

5. INFORMATION POLICY

- Information provided by you on your application form will be used for the purposes of processing your application for enrolment; and administration after enrolment.
- The data we collect will be kept confidential. You have the right to obtain access to and request correction of any information concerning you and your child held by us. Requests for such access should be made in writing.
- We reserve the right to amend our policies from time to time.
- Please read our Privacy Policy.

6. CHILD SAFEGUARDING POLICY

AISL OUTDOOR have a duty of care towards children in their charge and ensure always that the safety and protection of the child comes first – whether presented with an actual hazard, or in relation to any form of abuse. Each coach and teacher shall comply with AISL OUTDOOR's safeguarding requirements. Any matters of child protection or safety should be raised with us by email at info@aisloutdoor.com.

7. CODE OF CONDUCT

We value the relationship we have with our parents and participants, and strive to treat one another with respect and dignity, and offer support where needed. In turn we have an expectation that parents and care-givers of children attending any of our programmes follow the same principles

All parties should

Respect

- treat one another with respect
- respect the confidentiality of the situation and the privacy of individuals involved
- respect the beliefs, cultures and opinions of others even if you disagree

Support

- follow the procedures and practices of the programme and if you disagree with something, talk to the coach/teacher first

Ethical Communication

- use appropriate communication skills
- stay calm and relaxed
- use non-judgmental, respectful language
- seek advice whenever appropriate

Ethical Conduct

We ask that parents and caregivers and participants please

- don't smoke anywhere on school premises
- don't possess, use or be under the influence of alcohol or illegal drugs on school premises
- don't harass or abuse any person or use profanity on school premises or sports facility
- do not take any photographs or video/audio recordings without AISL OUTDOOR's permission.

Participants should

- follow the rules in the camp
- behave and dress appropriately

8. PHOTOS / VIDEOS GUIDELINES

- AISL OUTDOOR coaches, teachers and staff may occasionally use cameras and take photos and videos during camps for use in promotional publications and on our website.
- These images/videos will not be passed onto third parties.
- If parents do not wish us to use photos that include their child, please advise us on the application form or inform us at info@aisloutdoor.com .

9. INSURANCE COVERAGE

- AISL Outdoor and its Operations Providers are responsible for the public liability insurance coverage. This specific third-party risk insurance is structured to offer compensation in the event of financial losses stemming from unfortunate incidents involving the death or bodily injury of a third party. These incidents are directly related to shared areas and facilities within the premises, including but not limited to elevators, staircases, fire service installations, and other communal amenities.
- We strongly recommend that our participants purchase their own personal travel or personal accident insurance coverage at their own expense. This proactive step is instrumental in ensuring comprehensive protection for their individual interests and overall well-being during their engagement with our services. This supplementary insurance coverage serves as an additional layer of security and offers a safeguard against unforeseen circumstances and provides a vital safety net for our participants.
